Following day of rumors and speculation yesterday (mainly anticipating US invasion of Cuba) today's editorial reaction Kennedy speech one of unanimous support. Bogota's 2 liberal dailies both carried editorials praising US stand and particularly Kennedy's attitude of calm determination. ESPECTADOR notes that Cuban situation laid before us in exact dimensions without any attempt at distortion while TIEMPO states that even at risk of debilitating his personal prestige, Kennedy refused to indulge in excesses "nor to bow to belligerent fury of the exalted." Re proposed US actions both papers supported US aims and both called on Colombia to stand up and be counted with US. ESPECTADOR expresses hope for peaceful resolution of crisis but exhorts preparation for bitter, sorrowful, difficult days. Concludes not only future but very existence of our peoples depends upon manner in which we meet this situation. Reasoning of editorial that US blockade is exercise of elementary right, viz. self-defense. No mention of dangers to hemisphere, violation Rio Pact, etcetera, but merely that previous measures have proved insufficient requiring
